

Prewriting Exercise

- Most loyal to parents bc mean everything to me
- Friends would say greatest trait is persuasion ↙
- Parents/siblings would say greatest trait is perseverance ↙
- I want to be business man when older (environmental/financial) ↙
- Quirkiest trait about me is love/interest for Cars/Literature ↙
- Happiest when everyone around me is happy
- When I met my 8th grade English teacher, he taught me not to give up and I discovered how far I can push myself ↙
- When I studied Environmental Science the first time, I realized that it helped me understand the importance of my surroundings
- Character in literature most like me is Jay Gatsby bc we both have sentimentality in common
- When I speak the French language it connects me to others by allowing me to relate to them ↙
- When I travel my greatest joy is to see new cultures ↙
- I study other languages because I hope to pursue some sort of International business ↙
- When I stood in front of the Eiffel Tower it made me realize there's hope in the world ↙
- My favorite equation in math is Gauss' theory bc it turns a bigger picture into something simple ↙
- if you watch me work a math problem you will realize how dedicated I am to solving it
- favorite mathematician is Gauss because he taught me how to turn complex ideas into simple ones ↙

• I would most like to have dinner with Elon Musk we would discuss cars, business, environmental concerns ↓

• History taught me the lesson that mistakes should be learned from

• Favorite point in History to study is World War II because of the interesting war strategies employed by major countries

• If I could be any person in History it would be Alexander the Great because we are both strategical men that like to lead